Homenagem

A música sobre a solidão dos idosos é uma das mais conhecidas dos Beatles. A estátua de uma idosa foi erguida em Liverpool como forma de homenagear a banda e eternizar a canção.

Eleanor Rigby, nome que dá título à canção, é motivo de mistério até hoje. O nome já foi encontrado no túmulo de uma mulher na St Peter's Church, local onde Lennon e McCartney se conheceram, mas também está presente em uma série de documentos que Paul McCartney doou para um leilão de caridade, com registros antigos de um hospital em Liverpool, em que constava o nome de uma faxineira chamada E. Rigby.
